NORTHSIDE PLANNING COUNCIL NEWS

PROFILE

Helen Marks Dicks

Age: 61
Born: Brooklyn, New York
Neighborhood: Cherokee Garden Condos

Occupation: Lawyer for Wisconsin Senate Majority Leader Judy Robson, working on policy, budget and research

Community: Co-Chair of Northside Planning Council, Board of Directors of North/East Side Senior Coalition and the Grassroots Leadership College. I get to meet everybody. I have a great sense of what's going on on the Northside. I get to meet my neighbors, who collectively get a great deal accomplished.

Why what you do for the Northside is important: When the Northside acts as a group we get a lot done, this becomes a better neighborhood, a better place to live. A couple of recent examples are the Warner Park expansion, the protection of Cherokee Marsh and of Lindbergh Elementary and Black Hawk Middle Schools.

Hobbies: Community "mucking," reading and having conversations with interesting people

Greatest Northside pleasure: Shopping at Pierce's and the Northside Farmers Market

If you could change one thing on the Northside: Economic development to the point where more residents could live and work on the Northside

NPC Meeting Highlights July 25

Troy Gardens Community Association and Friends of Lake View Hill Park were unanimously accepted as new member organizations. NPC has 36 member organizations, 26 of which currently have representatives on the Council.

Tom Blake, Mo Cleland and Jeff Shokler agreed to attend the July 31 Madison Community Services Commission 2008 budget recommendations public hearing on behalf of NPC and other agencies serving the Northside community.

Ellen Barnard, Vernon Blackwell, Tom Blake, Willy Holden, Dan Hovey, Missy Johnson, Pat Morgan, Marge Pitts, Cheryl Redman, Wendy Sauvé, Michael Shinnners, Jeff Shokler, Pat Steele and Lisa Wiese agreed to hold house meetings on school issues. Contact Julie Spears or Jim Powell at 661-0060 to learn more and sign up.

The Council meets the fourth Wednesday of the month, 6:30 pm at Warner Park Center. The next meeting is September 26, and is open to the public. Info: 661-0060

If you could change one thing about the world: Eliminate the motive of greed in business and have universal access to high quality health care
